ABOUT THE MCDOWELL

The McDowell Nature Center and Preserve is just one of many beautiful gifts imparted to our region by the McDowell family. It upholds the values of preserving what is important, and celebrates natural abundance. It becomes the perfect namesake for our newly designed ranch plan which is brimming with light, boasts an open flowing layout, and includes stylish and intuitive elements important to our promise to offer you abundance and style. It complements the McLean outdoor lifestyle, representing perfectly Evans Coghill's ability to feature space-savvy, yet dramatically distinct home plans. Preserve what is most important to you in this graciously designed new home.
